Description :

PDF-bb6ee | The surprisingly simple process that preserves your meat while enhancing its natural flavors. With the invention of the tin can, freeze-drying, supermarkets, and microwaves, you might think that food preserved the old-fashioned way is no longer relevant to modern-day cooks and chefs. But the ancient traditions of smoking and curing food are actually seeing something of a resurgence these days, than... Home Smoking and Curing: Self-Sufficiency (The Self-Sufficiency Series)
